

PROFESSIONAL USE

COMMERCIAL LVT, LINOLEUM, HOMOGENEOUS¹ AND HETEROGENEOUS² RANGES 12 YEARS LIMITED WARRANTY

Scope

For a period of 12 years from the date of purchase as specified on the invoice, Tarkett makes the following limited Warranty, subject to the terms and conditions specified herein, for (hereinafter the “Warranty”):

- all Tarkett’s linoleum wall and floor covering commercial products, designed for interior installations;
- all Tarkett’s homogeneous wall and floor covering commercial products, other than iQ range products, designed for interior installations;
- all Tarkett’s heterogeneous wall, LVT and floor covering commercial products, other than Platinum and Excellence range products, designed for interior installations.

(hereinafter the “Products”).

This limited Warranty applies to Products purchased as from January 1st, 2026.

Coverage

Subject to the conditions of applicability herein, Tarkett warrants the Products against:

- visible defects reported before cutting or installation;
- defects in material or workmanship during normal and ordinary use, as defined in Tarkett technical documentation and in the appropriate EN standards.

Conditions of applicability

The Warranty will apply provided that the following cumulative conditions have been observed:

- The Product shall be used in accordance with recommended use specified in Tarkett technical documentation;
- The substrate is suitable for the application of any of the above mentioned Products (see Tarkett technical data sheet) and all accessories, welding rods, etc. shall be approved by Tarkett in Tarkett technical documentation. The adhesives and substrate preparation must be used according to the recommendations and technical documentation of the manufacturer of such Products;
- The installation of the Product shall be made in accordance with the state of art, the applicable local standards, and with the updated laying instructions applicable to the Product;
- The accessories such as substrate preparation, adhesives, welding rods etc. shall be used in accordance with the state of art and with the updated laying instructions applicable to the Product;
- The Products shall be maintained in accordance with Tarkett’s recommendations that will be found in the maintenance instructions accompanying the Product or available on request. In particular and without limitation, an adequate maintenance program shall be put in place immediately after installation, and this must encompass an adequate dirt barrier at all entrance points where an entrance from the exterior or from heavily soiled areas is possible;
- The Products are to be cleaned and maintained in accordance with Tarkett cleaning and maintenance instructions.

Claims under Warranty

The customer must give Tarkett or the retailer written notice of any claimed defect immediately upon learning of the defect and in no event more than 30 days after the claimed defect is discovered. The claim shall be sent to:

LOCAL TARKETT SALES NETWORK

The claim must be accompanied by:

- a copy of the invoices;
- where applicable, the site address where the Products were installed;
- exact references of the defected Products;
- the manufacturing serial number shown on the reverse and/or on the packaging, delivery slip;
- quantity of the Products concerned by the defect;
- one or more photographs, sample and an accurate description of the defect or fault detected.

The customer shall permit an inspection of the Product by Tarkett, including by visiting the site on which the claim arose. If necessary, Tarkett reserves the right at its discretion to remove from the site a quantity of the Product for laboratory analysis.

Tarkett will replace any defective Product at no charge if the Product is proven to be defective prior to cutting or installation.

If installation is in process, it shall be stopped on the day the defect is noticed otherwise the Warranty shall not apply.

If, upon inspection, Tarkett determines at its sole discretion the Product to be defective, subject to the limitations contained in this Warranty, Tarkett will, at its option,

² Excluding Tarkett’s Platinum and Excellence heterogeneous products

either replace the defective Product at its cost in the affected room or area or refund to the customer an amount equal to:

$$\frac{A \times B \times (100 - C \times (100 / 144))}{100}$$

Where:

A = the area of defective Product (rounded up to the next whole square meter)

B = price per square meter paid for the defective Product

C = the period from date of invoice of the defective Product to date of notification of defect (in complete months, rounded down).

Should Tarkett be unable to perform the replacement with an identical Product, the Product closest to the original in appearance and quality will be used.

Under no circumstance shall Tarkett's refund exceed the purchase price of the defective Products. Compensation excludes the taking up cost, the installation dismantling cost (partitions, furniture, etc.), the cost of laying and of material possibly used for laying (glue, double stick seams, etc.).

Product repairs or replacements performed under the terms of this Warranty shall not result in any extension whatsoever of the Warranty.

If however, the cause of the defect is found to be outside the scope of the Warranty, Tarkett reserves the right to charge the customer for the cost of the inspection. Any repairs deemed necessary by Tarkett during an inspection of the Product which are the responsibility of the customer (or its agents, contractors, employees or invitees) shall be carried out at the customer's expense in accordance with Tarkett's recommendations for the Warranty to continue during the Warranty period.

Exclusions from Warranty

This Warranty does not apply to the following:

16. This Warranty is null and void if damage is caused as a result of fire, accident, including aggressive chemical attack, explosion, pollution, flood, freezing conditions, lightning, carelessness, vandalism or lack of entrance barrier matting or damage during transport, storage and handling before or during installation;

17. The Warranty excludes all damage which has occurred to the Product as a result of abrasions from external elements: sand, grit, bitumen, building materials, etc;

18. Are furthermore excluded from the Warranty stains connected with external sources, paints, tar, bitumen, dye stuffs, regenerated rubber castors and chair legs and stains, discoloration or any damages caused by the migration of the adhesives.

Miscellaneous

This express limited Warranty constitutes the sole warranty provided by Tarkett. Tarkett makes no other warranty, either express or implied, of any kind.

This Warranty supersedes all prior discussions, negotiations, understandings and agreements between Tarkett and the customer concerning the subject matter hereof.

None of our installers, retailers, distributors or employees has been granted the right to modify the obligations, disclaimers, exclusions or limitations under this express Warranty.

To the extent allowed by local law,

Tarkett shall not be liable for loss of profits, direct, indirect, incidental, special, consequential or other damages under this Warranty or from any cause whatsoever, whether based upon warranty, negligence, breach of contract, strict liability or any other legal theory.

This Warranty gives you specific rights, and you may also have rights which may vary from country to country.

To the extent that this Warranty is inconsistent with a local law, this Warranty shall be deemed modified to be consistent with such local law. Under such local law, certain disclaimers and limitations of this Warranty may not apply to the customer. Nevertheless, the remainder provisions of this Warranty shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected thereby.
